

JOHN MANN BIOGRAPHY

Simon in UPN's "HAUNTED"

John Mann portrays Simon, a villainous ghost, who continues to haunt private investigator, Frank Taylor, in UPN's new supernatural drama HAUNTED.

As a jack-of-all-trades, Mann has built a renaissance career, which includes a body of work ranging from creating soundscapes for theatre to acting in television, film and theatrical productions.

Mann has been seen in numerous dramatic television series, including "Millennium," "Dark Angel," "Cold Squad," and "Freedom." He was also seen in the feature films "Turbulence 3," "The Gateway" and "Lone Hero."

His theatrical experience includes roles in "Of Mice and Men" at the Vancouver Playhouse Theatre, "2B WUT U R" at the Green Thumb Theatre in Vancouver and "King Lear" at the Capilano College Theatre.

Mann is a co-founder and lead vocalist for Spirit of the West, a pop folk band, which was founded 19 years ago in Vancouver. Mann also recently released a solo album.

Born in Calgary, Alberta, Mann moved to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan before settling back west to Vancouver, British Columbia. He studied improvisational theatre at Capilano College in North Vancouver, and further trained at Studio 58 in Vancouver.

07/02

-- UPN --