

MATTHEW FOX BIOGRAPHY

Frank Taylor in
UPN's "HAUNTED"

Matthew Fox stars in the new UPN drama HAUNTED as private eye Frank Taylor, whose life is changed forever after a near-death experience leaves him haunted by lost souls from beyond the grave who help him in solving a variety of cases.

Fox is best-known for his role as Charlie Salinger, elder brother and legal guardian of an orphaned family, in "Party of Five." He also received rave reviews for his portrayal of a disturbed young man in the television movie "Behind the Mask," opposite Donald Southerland.

In addition to earning his bachelor of the arts degree in economics from Columbia University in New York, Fox spent four years as a wide receiver on the University's football team.

Raised on his family's ranch in Crowheart, Wyo., Fox developed an early interest in sports and the outdoors. He is an active company member of Open Fist Theatre in Los Angeles.

Fox currently resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Margarita, and two children.
