

RUSSELL HORNSBY BIOGRAPHY

Marcus Bradshaw in
UPN'S "HAUNTED"

Russell Hornsby co-stars in the new UPN drama HAUNTED as the level-headed police detective Marcus Bradshaw, who supports his former colleague and friend Frank, portrayed by Matthew Fox, in his quest to solve crimes through supernatural means.

Born and raised in Oakland, Calif., Hornsby later moved to the east coast and earned a bachelor of arts degree in theatre at Boston University. Upon graduation, he moved to New York to perform in various theatre productions and moved to Los Angeles to further pursue acting.

His television experience includes a series regular role on "Gideon's Crossing," as head resident Dr. Aaron Boies, and a powerful role in the original television movie "Keep The Faith, Baby." Other film credits include "Big Fat Liar" and "Meet The Parents." On stage, Hornsby appeared as Youngblood in August Wilson's "Jitney."

Hornsby is an all-around athlete. Currently, he is unmarried and resides in Los Angeles.

7/02

-- UPN --